*NARRATION: For 2000 years, our Lord's disciples have given their allegiance to the Eternal Kingdom of God, been faithful to the Word of God, endured oppression, confronted evil, and embraced the cross without regret or retreat.

In April of 1521, one of them, Martin Luther, was herded into a chamber in the German city of Worms, where his foes commanded him to renounce the authority of the scriptures over any other earthly power. Luther refused and his words reverberate in our hearts to this day: "I am tied by the Scriptures," he cried. "Here I stand. I can do no other, God help me. Amen!" Robert J. Morgan - Author, Pastor, Theologian
